CURRENT TOPICS IN WESTERLY

Change of Vote Returns Stonington to Republican Column-Majority For License a Surprise-Westerly Catholic Club Holds Annual Meeting-Awning Fire Probably Caused by Cigarette Carelessly Thrown-Republican Committees Organize.

The town of Stonington has been restored by the people to the republican column by gaining the majority of the board of selectmen, Stable in the village and Pawcatuck, and Wilcox of Mystic. The minority member is Holdredge of Mystic. This means that William H. Cassy, deposed as patrolman by the democratic board of selectmen, can be reinstated to that place in Pawcatuck for the asking, but it is understood that he will not accept the place, unless through pressure of the appointing power. His duties as deputy sheriff and his business interests have so increased since he ceased to be patrolman that he is not seeking reappointment.

Though the actual issuing of licenses would be annually and under the same conditions as prevail at present.

The annual meeting of the Westerly Catholic club was largely attended, and the reports of the officers and board of managers showed the organization to be in excellent condition. Plans were made for special entertainments along the same lines of the was largely attended, and the reports of the officers and board of managers showed the organization to be in excellent condition. Plans were made for special entertainments along the same lines of the was largely attended, and the reports of the officers and board of managers showed the organization to be in excellent condition.

A year ago when Casey was released from police patrol duty, Seleated and the control of Pawcatuck was of the democratic majority, but favored the change. His action was approved by a few democrats, but the majority of the people of the viliage favored the retention of Casey in recognition of his many years of faithful service, though they bore no ill will against Patroiman Keegan, his successor. When Selectman Chesebro handed Mr. Casey the note of dismissal, Casey remarked that public opinion on the action would be given when the selectman was a candidate for reelection. Mr. Chesebro was defeated at the election Monday, although he was elected a representative to the state legisalture two years ago and is a candidate for renomination. Casey did not do it all, but he helped, just a little.

The town of Stonington also voted to return to the liquor license column and by a majority of about 200, so large that it came as a surprise to even the most sanguine adherents of the open saloon. Even the village of Pawcatuck, which in former years, with the aid of Mystic, the Head of the River, and Road districts, polled votes sufficient to overcome the large license vote of Stonington borough, voted for license Monday by a majority of 94. For nearly a quarter of a century the village of Pawcatuck has voted against license and with the assistance of the other districts except Stonington, has permitted enly intermittent legal sale of liquor in the town. On Monday, not only Pawcatuck, but Mystic as well, fell in line with Stonington and overcame the vote in the other two districts on the license question. Usually when license did prevail it was by a close margin vote. The town has at times, voted in favor of no-license by 200 majority, and the vote of Monday for license is said to be the largest ever polied.

There were licenses granted for Pawactuck the year before last, to Messrs. Keleher, Mahoney. Cella, Halpin, Tattersail and Neville. One of these is now deceased, and probably not more than two will be among the applicants for liquor license. There was an unsuccessful effort made at that time to locate saloons in the vicinity of St. Michael's church and achool, but the county commissioners recognized the justice of the protests, and decided that the saloons must be located in the business section of the village, where they would be within police patrol supervision. So it is believed the same ruling will prevail when liquor licenses for the ensuing year are issued.

Mrs. Maude E. Baker of Norwich, assistant inspector department of Connecticut, Woman's Relief corps, in spected the work of Hancock Relief corps, in their quarters in the Memorial building Tuesday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon there was inspection of the books, and, after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and, after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and, after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and, after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and, after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and, after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and after building Tuesday afternoon there was inspection of the books, and after build

This is in marked contrast to the conditions which prevail in Westerly, which went license for a first time two years ago. With the exception of the Martin house saloon and the Dixon house bar, all licensed liquor dealers in the village, with the exception of one on Quarry hill, are located between the tracks of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Co. and the Pawcatuck river. The licensed places in the Second district of the town of Westerly.

By population, the town is entitled to sighten licenses, and the full number was Issued by the town council at 1706 each, $250 more than is paid for license in Pawcatuck, just across the bridge in Connecticut. The license question will be voted on at the November election in Westerly, Hereafter, the license question will be voted upon biennially. Therefore, should the voters of Westerly favor licenses at the coming election, it will mean two years' license instead of one,

Cottolene

makes delicious pastry

It's the last word in pastrymaking. It makes cakes so light and airy that every morlight and airy that every mor Rev. Samuel G. Babcock, formerly of Westerly, archdeacon of the Episcopal diocese, took a prominent part in the exercises of dedicating St. Paul's church, Boston, for cathedral purposes. sel tastes like "more."

tolene food is never greasy.

Cottolene is better than Cottolene is cheaper than butter—costs no more than lard, and will give better results than either. Use one-thirdless than Cottolene is cheaper than third less than butter also.

Cottolene is never sold in bulk - always in air-tight tin pails, which protect it from dirt, dust and odors. It is always uniform nd dependable.

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY

Lack, Livery and Boarding STABLE

We guarantee our service to be the best at the most reasonable prices. MAHONEY BROS.,

The annual meeting of the Westerly Catholic club was largely attended, and the reports of the officers and board of managers showed the organization to be in excellent condition. Plans were made for special entertainments along the same lines of those of last winter and a season of pleasure is anticipated by the members. These officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dr. Michael H. Scanlon, president; Judge John W Sweeney, first vice president; Edward Fenelon, second vice president; Charles J. Butler, financial secretary; James Collins, treasurer; Rev. Peter McOscar, spiritual director. Dr. John M. O'Connell, Charles E, St. Onge and Joseph A. Daley were elected to the board of managers for three years. The board of managers will elect a recording secretary.

While Chief of Police Brown was en duty in Dixon square a few minutes before midnight Monday he saw a blaze up High street in front of the the Barber Memorial building which was damaged by fire a few years ago. He sent in the fire alarm from box is in the square and then ran to the fire.

fire.

It was in the awning in front of the John T. Edmond store. Chief Brown, with the ald of Policeman Ferguson, fore the awning down and extinguished the blaze before the arrival of fire apparatus. Within ten minutes after the alarm was sounded Chief Engineer Cottrell sent in the recall. It is believed that a lighted cigarette snapped on the awning by a careless smoker caused the blaze.

The town and district republican committees have organized and decided upon the recommendation of candidates to the caucuses that are to be held Thursday ovening. The town committee organized by the election of William Clark chairman, Arthur L. Perry secretary, and Dr. John M. O'Connell, treasurer. It was decided to recommend the renomination of Louis W. Arnold for senator. Charles F. Berry was chosen chairman of the First district committee, and George B. Utter secretary. The committee endorsed Joseph T. Murphy as district candidate for representative.

as district candidate for representa-tive.

William Clark was voted chairman of the Second district and Arthur Per-ry secretary. This district committee decided to recommend the renomina-tion of Albert H. Langworthy as can-didate for representative from the Second district.

Full three hundred fans assembled in front of Nash's news store, Tuesday afternoon, to watch the bulletin board report of the championship baseball

The flying squadron of the progressive party, composed in the main of ladles in automobiles, is scheduled to arrive in Dixon square at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

At the annual meeting of the Rhode Island Baptist Educational society, held in Providence, Rev. Joseph L. Peacock of Westerly was re-elected to membership in the board of directors.

Digestible too, because Cotblene food is never greasy.

The Italian societies of Westerly will observe Columbus day Saturday, with a parade in the afternoon, followed by a general glorification at Riverside park, with a pyrotechnic display in the symbol.

Capt. and Mrs. Frank H. Robinson observed their silver weeding at their home in Main street, Monday evening. There were about forty guests present and all were pleasantly entertained. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson received many gifts.

serves on the committee on resolu-

The local progressives had a rally in the town hall Tuesday evening and spirited addresses were made by speakers who came from the party's state headquarters in Providence. The small hall owned by the town was giv-en to the party rent free, and was am-ple to accommodate the interested lis-

NOANK

Silver Links Society Entertained by Mrs. Charles I. Libby.

Mrs. Charles I. Libby entertained the members of the Silver Link society at her home on Pearl street Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in sewing. Refreshments were served. The fishing boat Provincetown, Cap-tain Beebe, is hauled out for repaint-ing.

ing.

Ira Smith and Harold Ashbey have gone to Detroit, Mich., where they have secured employment for the winter. Mrs. Addle Rathbun of Church street ing her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Roarke, ed the following candidates: Representatives to the general assembly, Mrs. C. M. Chester has returned from William C. Arnold, Charles El. Austin: Mrs. C. M. Chester has returned from visit to relatives in Maynard, Mass. Miss Gertrude Smith of Providence is visiting in town for a few days. Capt. J. W. Potter and W. P. Lath-am have returned from Center Groton.

PROGRESSIVES NOMINATE. Ticket Made Out by the Party in North Grosvenordale. Falls Ave

Mrs. Addle Rathbun of Church street is the guest of Mrs. Harry Wheaton of Veterans' hall the progressive causin Groton.

Mrs. Carrie McDonald is entertain
At North Grosvenordale in the Sons is the guest of Mrs. Harry Wheaton of Veterans' hall the progressive causing of the fall season of Mrs. Albert B. Webb on Allen hills held Tuesday evening. They nominated for the first meeting of the fall season.

judge of probate, George E. Crosby; justices of the peace, Ernest C. Gustafson, Dyer S. Elliott, Randolph H. Chandler, Martin Jacobs, Thomas Ryan, Wilfred Trudeau, Otto Seward, Charles E. Austin, Leon N. Walker, Edmund Cassells.

Missionary Society Entertained by Mrs. A. B. Webb.

Danielson, Oct. 8.—The Women's hissionary society of the Baptist son. At the business meeting plans for the coming year were considered. The social part of the outing was very pleasing. The ladies were served a dainty lunch, including salad, cake, and fruit, with some of Mr. Webb's famous watermelons as a special fa-passing quarantine without detention at the hands of the sinte officials. It came in a bottle, brought here by A. H. Hale, who arrived in New York today aboard the steamship Finland. The flies were dead, preserved in alcohol, and will be offered for investigation to scientists who care to study them at close range.

DEAD TSETSE FLIES BROUGHT TO NEW YORK of the Congo to Be Studied American Scientists.

Mayor a Candidate for Representative

Putnam, Oct. 8.—
Mayor Archibald Macdonald has decided to be a candidate for nomination as representative at the republican caucus to be held this (Wednesday) evening, it was announced Tuesday night. the Congo has arrived in New York, night,

